Your false alarm history is erased every year on January 1st.

What is a false alarm?

- ⊗ Wrong code
- ⊗ Door or window not properly shut
- ⊗ Programming error
- ⊗ Faulty equipment
- ⊗ Motion sensors not properly installed

What are the impacts?

In 2013, over 13,927 alarms were triggered. 97.6% of them were false alarms.

For team patrols of two, false alarms represent the equivalent, in lost time, of 6 full time police officers.

False alarms incur costs and endanger lives during transportation for emergency situations. Time and money lost could be used for real interventions, for the benefit of all.
